DESCRIPTION

This delightful detached bungalow is set in a convenient location close to schools, amenities and shops and is on a main bus route. A distinctive verandah to the front of the property is just one example of the character that is on offer throughout.

Of particular note internally are the high ceilings and also the wooden flooring.

The accommodation offers up to four bedrooms, although the current owners have opted to use one of the bedrooms for additional reception space.

There is a lovely four piece bathroom, a walk through utility area and a large vaulted kitchen/dining room at the heart of the house. A conservatory overlooks the garden.

The garden is generous, secure and benefits from two outbuildings. A large summerhouse tucked away in the corner is a major asset and could provide a studio, office or even additional accommodation.

There is wonderful storage in the form of a large attic while the fact this property transaction will be chain-free is also significant.

And there is plenty of parking too!
